415TECH meetup

Tuesday June 28, 2016   6:00 to 8:30 PM

@ ThoughtWorks San Francisco

814 Mission St. (at 4th St.) 5th Floor
San Francisco, CA 94103

Tickets are $10. online at 415tech.com

Our May Speaker & Topic:

Brewster Kahle, Digital Librarian & Founder, The Internet Archive

Brewster Kahle is an American computer engineer, Internet entrepreneur, internet activist, advocate of universal access to all knowledge, and digital librarian. He is the founder of the Internet Archive, the Internet Archive Federal Credit Union, Alexa and Thinking Machines and a member of the Internet Hall of Fame.

The Internet Archive is a San Francisco-based nonprofit digital library with the stated mission of "universal access to all knowledge". It provides free public access to collections of digitized materials, including web sites, software applications/games, music, movies/videos, moving images, and nearly three million public-domain books. As of May 2014, its collection topped 15 petabytes. In addition to its archiving function, the Archive is an activist organization, advocating for a free and open Internet.

415TECH is a new Meetup business network for upwardly mobile and very interesting people. It covers many verticals such as MobileTech, InfoTech, EdTech, VRTech, SpaceTech FinTech, HomeTech, GreenTech, and more. Our focus is organizing Meetup presentations by CEOs, CTOs, thought leaders and authors. Our goal is to create a strong local network of people who are passionate about new technologies and expanding their horizons.

Join us for an evening with very interesting people, projects and great networking!